Joint High School
Milford, Pennsylvania

Alma Mater

Oh, cherished halls of Delaware,

We give our hearts to thee,

Amid the scenic splendor,

That lends fond memory.

We see our youth and happiness,

As days beyond compare.

In silent moments we'll recall,

Our years at Delaware

Phew!
What a day!

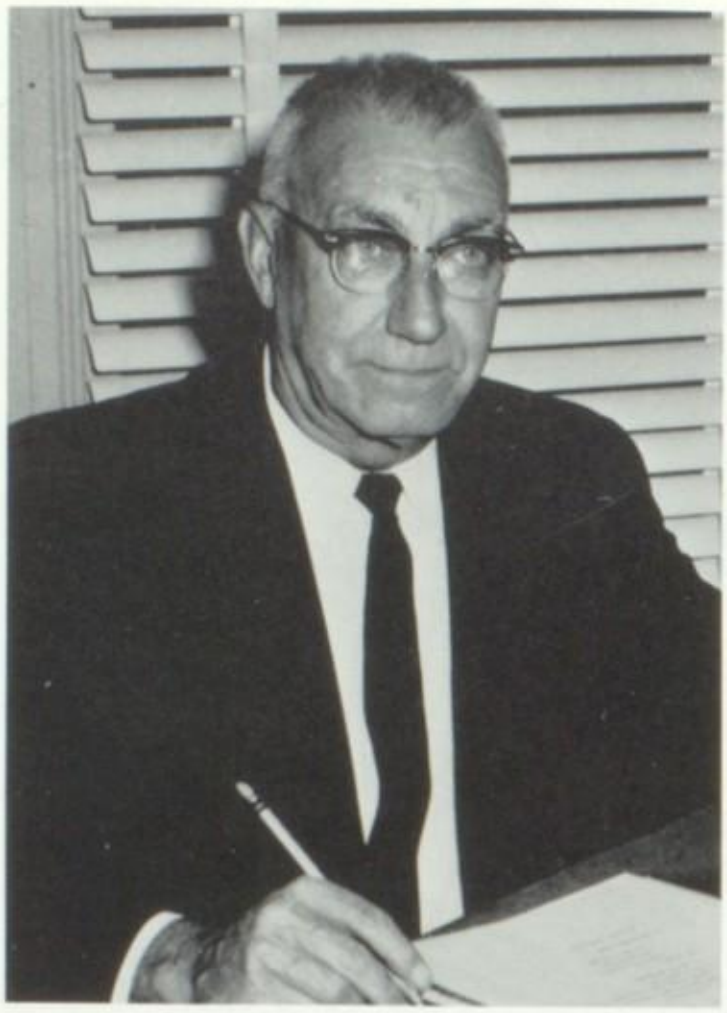
We Salute You

We Salute You - Mr. Marioni

We could not think of a more fitting occasion to express our appreciation for the tremendous assistance and the many courtesies you have extended to us.

This salute is our way of showing that the effort and devotion you have put forth in your job have not gone unnoticed.

Administration



MR. R. LLOYD JONES

Mr. R. Lloyd Jones, County Superintendent.
Mr. Jones was elected by the County School Board and has continued to serve since February, 1953.

Educated	Coudersport Public Schools Mansfield State College Temple University - B.S. and M.S.
Taught	Potter County rural school Doylestown H.S. - mathematics and athletics
Supv. Prin.	Potter County 1936-1948
Advisor	School Business, Dept. of Public Instruction 1948-1953

Mr. Jones helped organize the Joint Board Areas, and guided the merging of the Milford Matamoras high schools. He was a strong leader in planning for our new building and continues to encourage the addition of new subjects and general improvements of our curriculum.

MR. LELAND CRAMER

This publication of the Delaware marks Mr. Cramer's second year as Supervising Principal of the Delaware Valley Joint High School.

Educated	Pennsylvania State University
Taught	Milford High School 1947-54, science
Supv. Prin.	Southern Wayne Schools 1954-63

The course of Delaware Valley has been running smoothly for the past two years under the capable guidance of Mr. Cramer and we of Delaware hope that his guiding hand will remain with us for many more years to come.

Administration

Mr. Schneck, high school principal.

Educated	Allentown High School Lehigh - B.A. and M.A. New York University
Taught	Florence Gaudineer H.S. 1957-61 Springfield, New Jersey Science and Health

In the three years that Mr. Schneck has been at Delaware Valley he has made several improvements in our school system. Some of these are new lunch schedules, improved parking regulations, and the renumbering of rooms to make it easier for students to find classrooms.

MR. KARL SCHNECK

Guidance

FRANCIS SALVAMOSER

Testing, analyzing test results, and individual counseling are functions of the guidance department. Mr. Salvamoser, new this year, gives help in course selection and vocational choice.

MURIEL S. PICKWELL (Mrs.)

ANNE B. RYDER (Mrs.)

Through the cooperation of five businessmen in Milford, these girls have practical experience in Office Practice work, spending one half day weekly during the entire year. Right, Denise McMullen, Patricia Barber, Roberta Findlay, Carol Fendrich and Melanie Gatzke watch Mrs. Pickwell explain the Azograph.

Below, tenth graders practice typing with Mrs. Ryder.

Language

THEODORE MANKIEWICZ

THELMA D. METZ (Mrs.)

The language department offers a two year course in Latin and a three year course in French. Seventh and eighth graders also are given the opportunity to study French during Activity Period on Tuesday and Thursdays. The picture below shows a group of students studying French in the Language Laboratory while at the left Mr. Mankiewicz shows a student how to conjugate a verb in Latin.

Science

DOROTHY MILLER (Mrs.)

WILLIAM LEISER

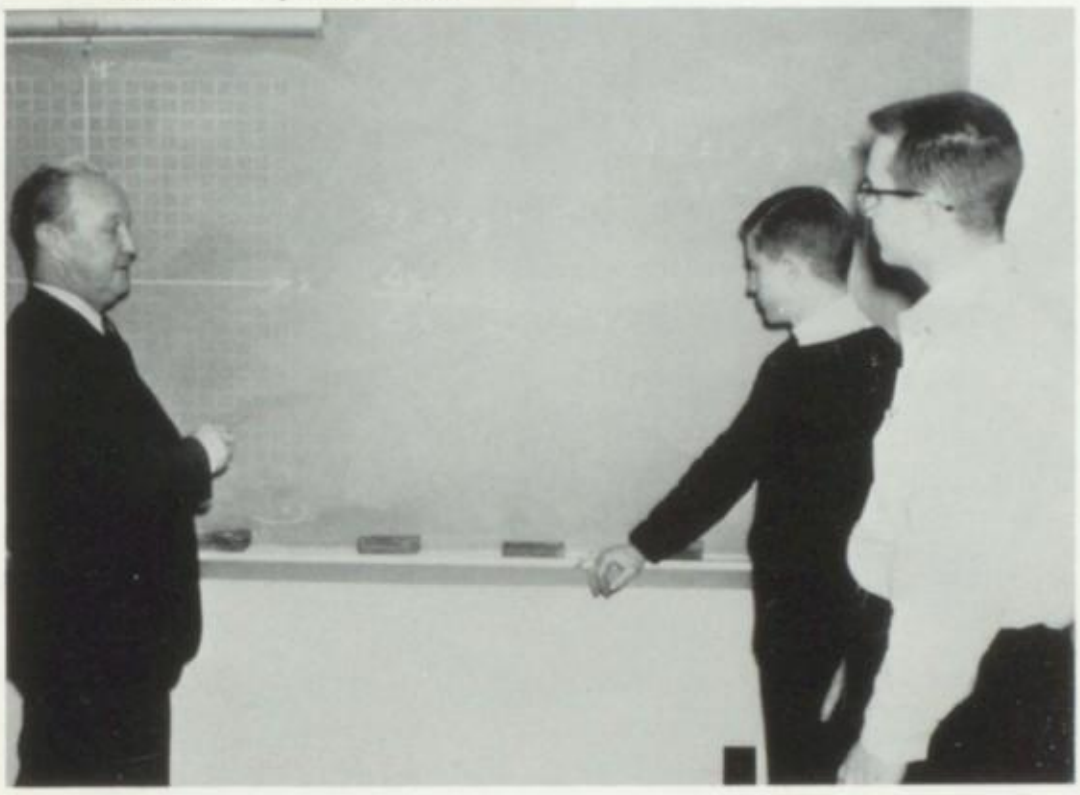
RONALD McMASTER

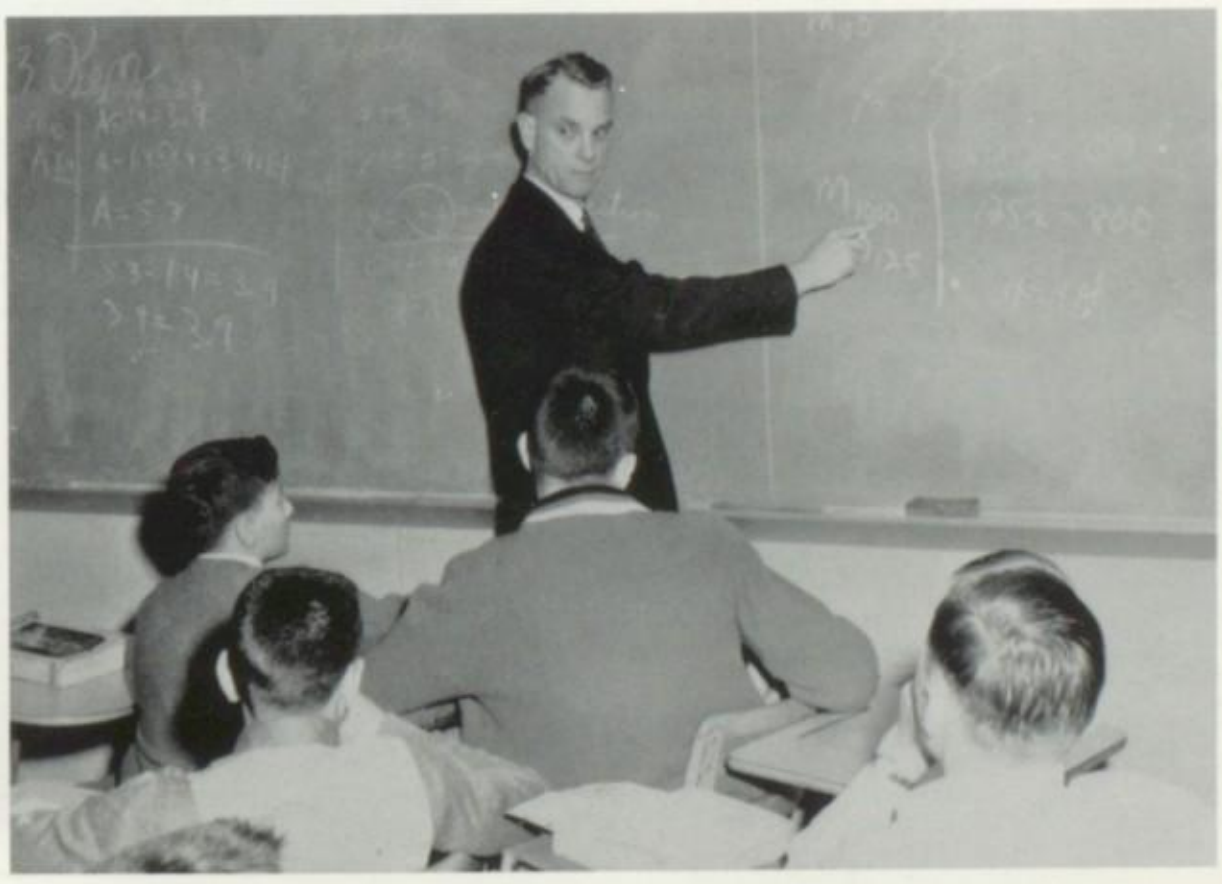
Mathematics

ALBERT F. HEBERLIG

JOHN HAWKINS



The math department offers an accelerated algebra course to eighth grade academic students. Mr. Heberlig teaches Advanced Math and College Algebra to qualified seniors who plan to go to college. In the picture at the left Mr. Heberlig shows Bill Ramagosa and Dick Berger how to solve a trig problem. Below Mr. Hawkins instructs an Algebra Class.



HAROLD EATON

CAROL PADALINO (Mrs.)

CARL SASSAMAN

Fine Arts

The Fine Arts Department, which contributes to the cultural background of the students, is an asset to the school and surrounding communities. Both band and chorus produce enjoyable concerts and the art department encourages young students to enjoy art and to develop art skills.

Practical Arts

The Home Economics Department under the supervision of Mrs. Fitzpatrick prepares girls for future home life, teaching them child care, cooking, and sewing. The picture above shows girls participating in a typical Home Ec. Class.

Shop is required in junior high school for all boys and is an elective in senior high. The boys study mechanical drawing and then use this skill to plan and make projects.

Mr. McCormack teaches the Pre-Vocational Group.

Physical fitness tests have become a popular part of class work. Seasonal sports are taught and intramurals are hotly-fought contests held after school.

Health Staff

MRS. GLORIA FOSS

DR. JACK BULLOCK

Students in grade eleven and transfer students had regularly scheduled health examinations. Those who tried out for athletic teams were examined before try-outs. The dental program in the charge of Mrs. Baughn, Dental Hygienist, set up a plan of examination for seventh graders. Mrs. Foss taught Home Nursing and was available for student conferences two days per week.

Office Staff

Mrs. Barber, Bookkeeper, and Mrs. Peters, Secretary to Mr. Cramer.

Cafeteria Staff

LEFT TO RIGHT: Mrs. Benson, Mrs. Pratschler, Mrs. Kleinstuber, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. White, Mrs. Brombacher.

Bus Drivers

Certain features of school seem better than classes. For some, those twenty minutes at noontime were the most important part of the day. Spaghetti and meat balls were our favorite lunch, but those wonderful hot cinnamon buns were so big and so good we just couldn't resist them for extra dessert. "Hurry up, You'll miss the bus" must have echoed daily in every home. Breathlessly we rushed; grumpily we greeted our friends. Lucky were those whose bus had a radio to drown out the wails about unfinished home-work. Going home was the best time of day to talk-about teachers-and dates - and tomorrow.

Assemblies

Were you really interested, or just late for class?

Assembly programs presented by the Student Council included Antrim Bureau speakers. Especially well-liked were: Mr. Ellis of Java; the Shakespearian impersonator; Mr. Bhambal of India; and Bucky Reeves, who showed a nature film and his pet live snakes.

And in India . . .

Going to a party?

The Student Council consists of class presidents and a representative from each homeroom. Each spring new officers are elected by the student body. The Council regulates all school and class activities as well as sponsoring dances during the year. This year they also sponsored a series of interesting assemblies with speakers sent by the Antrim Bureau.

At the right is a poster from the Winter Dance sponsored by Student Council.

Dedication

THE PINCHOT INSTITUTE

September 24, 1963

The Pinchot Institute for Conservation Studies fills a long felt need for a national center where conservationists and educators may meet and develop policies, programs, and literature "for greater knowledge of the land and its uses."

The Institute will serve as a center for—

Conferences
Curriculum studies
Development of curriculum materials
Publications on conservation
Workshops for teachers
Land use demonstration areas

Unveiling of Dedicatory Plaque

Institute

Brilliant sunshine and a crisp fall day welcomed President John F. Kennedy as he arrived by helicopter to dedicate the Pinchot Institute, delivering the main speech and unveiling the native-stone monument.

It was a day of thrilling suspense for our band members as they entertained the waiting crowd until time for "Hail to the Chief."

These four students were awarded the National Merit Letter of Commendation.
